

John Sandiford

Owner Antonio Media

John Sandiford, is the project manager, interaction designer and owner of Antonio Media. His company specializes in User Interaction Design, and is a proud member of Founded By All, a creative business hub for creative entrepreneurs in the field of design and engineering based in Strijp-S, Eindhoven.

John was recently awarded the World Trade Center Eindhoven 2016 Young Professional Award.

John was born on the Caribbean island Saint Maarten, but has lived in Eindhoven for over 13 years. After graduating in 2010 in ICT Media Design at the Fontys University, he immediately started his own company Antonio Media. John is a firm believer in co-creation with his clients and has a young team of interns and collaborates with a number of professional freelancers to develop epic User Experiences and Interfaces. His clients consist of both national and international SMEs and multinationals, such as Rockwool Global, ASML and Honeywell EMEA.

John's greatest passion is people, creativity and technology.

What he does?

He is a specialist in User Experience & User Interface Design, Online Business Strategy and Project Manager.

